BALLANTYNE—BOWEN

On Tuesday, June 17th the marriage of William S. Ballantyne, of Spring Point and Miss Isabelle M. Bowen, daughter of Mrs. H. C. Bowen, was solemnized at the Methodist Parsonage, Macleod. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. D. Armstrong in the presence of immediate relatives and the happy couple left on the noon train. They will visit Spokane, Portland, Vancouver and Victoria and upon their return will take up their residence at Spring Point, where Mr. Ballantyne is engaged in farming and ranching. The bride is well known as a former resident of Macleod and her many friends wish her great happiness in her new home.

CARNIVAL QUEEN IS ELECTED

Miss Lillian Webb of Macleod was yesterday elected Carnival Queen for the Macleod Jubilee, by a large majority. There were ten contestants for the position of honor and great interest was shown in the election, each candidate having her own supporters working strenuously for her. The next six candidates with the largest number of votes were elected as a retinue of honor to Her Majesty, Miss Lillian Webb the chosen queen is a daughter of Staff Sergeant Webb of the R. C. M. Police here, and is one of the most popular girls in Macleod. Those coming next in order are Misses Olive Lambert, Margaret Shields, Wilma Swinerton, Nellie Drinkwater, Dolly Genge and Dorothy Dufour. There were more votes polled at this election than at any ordinary municipal or provincial election.

Cowboy Chanteys

The Western Cowboy is a lover of music, in fact he is a genius in composing impromptu verses, and when on Night Herd or on a long ride, he will sing for hours old fashioned chanteys, sometimes forty and fifty verses long. The songs generally refer either to himself, his job, or the range and horses. Seekey."

ON NIGHT HERD "Watch'em Pinto Do"

Now Mike he was a greenhorn, straight from Erin's Isle,
Watch 'em Pinto do—
He'd never seen a Round-up in proper Western style,
Steady Pinto do—
So they gets him a horse, that needed loopin' off,
Swing around Pinto do—
Says Paddy "I'll be jabbers, but me stickicks comin' off,"
Watch 'em Pinto do.

Chorus.
His spurs were a jangling,
His feet were a tanglin',
And his chaps were a danglein',
All round by his knee.

Now the buckskin made a jump, and Paddy jumped as well,
Get up Pinto, do—
Says Pat, "This ain't a horse, but a fiend o' Hell",
Steady Pinto do—
Away went Paddy with language

THE STORY OF LOVE IN CAVE-
MAN DAYS, IN ANCIENT ROME AND MODERN TIMES

Read Below How Buster Keaton in
"Three Ages" Fights in Various Ways for the Girl He Loves

"Love is the axis upon which the world revolves," declared Buster Keaton recently and proceeded to make a picture to prove it. "Three Ages," which is coming to the Empress Theatre on next Wednesday and Thursday not only proves Keaton's theory but it is a comedy of six reels and marks the entrance of this popular actor into full length feature pictures.

"Three Ages" opens with the cave man age and shows Buster as a full fledged cave man surrounded by others of his tribe. Unfortunately Buster has fallen in love with the woman who is desired by the strong man of the clan. A duel is arranged, Buster, being the weaker, seeks to worst his rival by foul means. He "leads" his club with a rock, beats his rival into insensibility and finally, after a merry chase, he seizes the woman forcibly from his enemies and escapes with her.

The next episode takes place in the period of the triumphant Roman Empire. Again Buster has a rival for the woman he loves. A chariot race is arranged between them to decide the affair. The day of the race comes and it is snowing hard. Buster's rival appears in a splendid chariot drawn by four coal-black horses, and Buster appears in a chariot on runners drawn by Eskimo dogs. His rival, furious, throws him into a den with a hungry lion. Buster escapes, defeats his rival and takes the woman.

The action now changes to our own day. The same situation happens, Buster's rival is just as hot on his trail as during the two previous episodes. Now the contest to decide between them is a football match. Buster, puny and weak, against the brute towering strength of his rival, seeks to avoid him by playing different positions on the team, but his rival follows him each time to a position directly opposite. By a clever strategy Buster wins the game after which his rival "does him dirt." But here, too, Buster wins out and wins the girl.

In each period in which the action

LARGEST PAGEANT AND PARADE EVER SEEN IN CANADA

The final program for the Macleod Jubilee and Pageant on July 1st, 2nd and 3rd, has now been completed, and according to the following program given out by the Chairman of the Pageant Committee, at a massed meeting of all committees last evening, the huge parade will be larger and more brilliant than ever anticipated.

The pageant will commence at 10 o'clock on the morning of the 1st, from first Avenue. Colonel Walker, mounted and in the uniform of the Mounted Police of '74, with an escort of R. C. M. Policemen will be at the head of the procession, cannons of that period, Police Veterans of '74 to '80 in original uniforms; Old time pioneers; Wagons, democracy, buckboards, Macleod Brass Band, ten decorated cars of animal heads and robes etc., from Pincher Creek; stage coaches one containing Mrs. Cross, (daughter of late Colonel Macleod) first white woman born in Macleod, Alberta; California carts; string teams; Bull teams; Red river carts; Whiskey Traders and smugglers; Prospectors; Horse and Cow teams; Old fashioned and early autos; I. G. Baker wagons; Blood Indian Brass Band; Indian Medicine Men with Indians, Squaws, Travois, and over 2000 Indians in full regalia; Indian Cadets and Girl Guides; Boy Scouts and Cubs; Military Band; War veterans; decorated autos of all makes; the Calgary Shriners; Canadian Club; 100 decorated autos from Lethbridge; Lethbridge Rotary Club; decorated cars from Macleod and district; Round up outfits; Chuck wagons; Cowboys; Cowgirls; riders; teams; the Lethbridge Pipers Band; Carnival Queen and full retinue; Merchants Floats; Threshing outfit; the Indian of today in decorated cars; fraternal organizations and bodies; R. C. M. Police. The Marshal of the procession will be Capt. J. S. Lambert of Macleod.

The grounds for the stampee and races are now ready, the track is in excellent condition, and there is ample accommodation for sight-seers. Special rest rooms both at the Stampee Grounds, and down town will be opened. Red Cross First Aid stations in charge of experienced nurses, Nursery rooms for children. The streets of Macleod will be beautifully decorated with flags, bunting and arches, also the night light effects, will be very beautiful. The color scheme for decorations is Scarlet and Gold, the colors of the Mounted Police. There will be open air dancing on the sidewalks, several dancing halls, special evening carnivals every night, and the visitor to Macleod on July 1st, 2nd and 3rd is assured of a real good time, coupled with safety-first. The pageant and procession will be the largest and longest ever seen in Canada. The Dominion Government has sanctioned the coming of several aeroplanes for the Pageant, which will fly overhead during the parade. It will be a complete picture of Western Canada from 1874 to 1924. Included in the program will be Smoking Concerts for Oldtimers and ex-Mounties, real oldtime reunions, at the old Mounted Police Barracks, special Memorial Services, for those departed of the famous "Scarlet and Gold."

The Court House Square has been set aside for the parking of automobiles, and tourists and visitors can park their autos in safety for a nominal fee of twenty five cents, as the parking grounds will be under the supervision of a special squad of mounted police. Arrangements have been made with the A. P. Police and Macleod during the three days will be well policed and lawbreakers, rough-necks and others should avoid the Town on these days.

MACLEOD JUBILEE WILL HAVE MARKED AN EPOCH IN CANADIAN HISTORY.

Within ten days the Macleod Jubilee will be an important event of the past to be added to history's pages of "The growth of Western Canada." It is more than surprising the Dominion wide interest in the Jubilee has aroused. Hundreds and hundreds takes place Buster had the parents of the girl against him. The favored one was the strong rival. So Buster was constantly working against the greatest odds and his conquest each time was more noteworthy.

The various ages depicted by Keaton in "Three Ages" demanded widely different settings and to attain this several sets of great size and beauty were built. "Three Ages" was directed by Keaton and Eddie Cline from the story of the Haver, Mitchel and Clyde Bruckman. Fred Gabouri was in charge of art direction, and it was photographed by William McCann and Elgin Lessly. "Three Ages" is a Joseph M. Schenck presentation through Metro Pictures Corporation.

HEAVIEST CAST YET IN KEATON COMEDY

Buster Figures Support in "Three Ages" Weighs More Than a Ton

There have been claims made as to the biggest cast ever assembled for a picture; the most gigantic set ever built for a production; the largest number of people ever gathered for a scene. But it is left to Buster Keaton, whose first six-reel Metro feature comedy-drama, "Three Ages," is coming to the Empress Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday next to boast that he has gathered the heaviest cast in the annals of the cinema. "That's some distinction, too," says Buster. "Just think of a cast weighing more than a ton! Can you beat it?"

Wallace Beery, who plays a leading role in "Three Ages," weighs over 225 pounds. Joe Roberts weighs 340 pounds. "Capit" Morgan, 350 pounds, to say nothing of the other members of the cast. Buster Keaton, a mere infant alongside of these physical giants, weighs 125 pounds. "Three Ages" was directed by Keaton and Eddie Cline from the story by Jean Haver, Joe Mitchell and Clyde Bruckman. Art direction was in charge of Fred Gabouri and it was photographed by William McCann and Elgin Lessly. "Three Ages" is a Joseph M. Schenck presentation through Metro.

HERBERT RAWLINSON HAS THRILLING ROLE IN DETECTIVE FILM

It's an old adage that the surest way to beat a crook is to adopt his methods and beat him at his own game. A clever demonstration of the worth of such a thought is presented in Herbert Rawlinson's newest Universal feature, "Stolen Secrets," coming next Friday and Saturday to of letters are being received every mail, from all over the Continent, from Old Timers, ex-Mounties, Tourists, Journalists, Camera men, and holiday makers who will spend July 1st, 2nd and 3rd in Macleod. Many Tourists passing through Macleod, have chosen their holiday tour to be in Macleod during the Jubilee. There is no doubt whatever but that it will be the largest, most picturesque and impressive spectacle ever witnessed in Western Canada. Arrangements have now been finally made whereby the chief points of interest, such as the pageant, oldtimers and oldtime equipment, Indians and their regalia are being filmed by a Vancouver Producing Company who are producing the great picture "Policing the Plains" by the Rev. MacBeth of Vancouver, and an Oldtimer of the West. The author will preach at the Sunday afternoon church Macleod on Sunday June the Empress Theatre.

Rawlinson plays a criminologist who "cleans out" a gang of crooks by working on the inside.
The story is built around a mysterious situation deftly handled by Director Irving Cummings who made "Fools Highway." It involves the exploits of a notorious free lance crook known as the "Eel" whose adventures prove a puzzle to the police, and the gang which rules the underworld. A woman crosses his path and nearly causes his downfall. But not until he is actually in the hands of his enemies does he realize his situation.

Rawlinson's role in the film probably offers him the widest scope of dramatic portrayal since the filming of "Come Through," a crook play produced by Universal several years ago in which Rawlinson scored his first big screen success.

In the cast are Kathleen Myers, Edwards Davis, Arthur Stuart Hill, Alfred Allen, Edwin J. Brady, George Seigmann and other players of exceptional skill.

"CODE OF THE SEA" COMPANY IN A TERRIFIC OCEAN STORM

Players Have Narrow Escape From Drowning Off The California Coast

Caught in the very maws of a terrific storm at sea while working aboard the lighthouse Relief eight miles out of the San Francisco Harbor, thirty members of Victor Fleming's "Code of the Sea" company narrowly escaped drowning.
The storm came up about noon-time," related Rod La Rocque, who is featured in this Byron Morgan story for Paramount with Jacqueline Logan. "All of us were so interested in the spectacular water stuff we were filming that we ignored the intensity of the gale. When it came time for our tug to come to take us off the lighthouse we found that it could not approach the anchored craft."

"In a driving rain sailors helped us into small boats, in which we were to make our way to the tug, which stood off about twenty yards waiting to pick us up. None of us ever knew that twenty yards of water could contain so much fury. One of our little shells capsized throwing three extra men into the teeth of the racing waves. Fortunately they were picked up before anything happened to them."

"We all got a thrill that won't be seen on the screen, but it was of invaluable benefit to all of us, for it enabled us to appreciate the stark horror of being in danger at sea—a vital dramatic issue in "Code of the Sea," which comes to the Empress Theatre on Monday and Tuesday. The 29th. The filming of these features will be an added attraction to the Jubilee, and will also mean hundreds of extra people in Macleod.

The plans for the huge pageant are now practically complete, and 10 o'clock on the morning of July 1st, will see the wonderful procession commence on its tour of the principal thoroughfares of Macleod. This procession will depict in every detail, in its entirety, the progress made in the West during the last 50 years, 1874-1924. Fort Macleod was one of the first and original North West Mounted Police Divisions in the West, and one of the most important, it was named after the late Colonel Macleod, the first officer commanding the early North West Mounted Police, the "Riders of the Plains."

The Stampee being held each afternoon is another grand attraction. Those witnessing Stampee performances will receive thrill upon thrill, and will have some conception of the sports and pastimes of the Cowboy and Indian in the good old cow-punching days.

The program of Military sports that will be staged by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police every afternoon, will be another attraction that cannot be overlooked.

The Macleod Jubilee on July 1st, 2nd and 3rd, will be the largest and most important event that has ever been staged in Canada. It offers a program of education, amusement, novelties, thrills and jollity that has never been offered to the public before.

The Jubilee is not a yearly affair, but happens only once in a lifetime, and this once in Macleod is going to be one that will be remembered for many years to come.
Arrangements have been made for accommodation for autists and rail-road traveller. Everything possible is being done and arranged for the convenience and comfort of the Jubilee visitor.

Every resident in Macleod is doing his or her bit to make the Macleod Jubilee a success, and with such co-operation and optimism it cannot fail to be anything but a success.

THE WONDERFUL DAYS. MACLEOD JUBILEE, JULY 1-2-3.

Bucking, roping, riding, wild steers, wild horses, cavalry sports, cowboy events, Indian races and villages, dancing, carnival, children's pageant, music galore, special attractions, the "Covered Wagon," and lastly the miles and miles of scenic pageant that will commence the Jubilee at 10 o'clock on the morning of July 1st. At 1 p.m. on that day His Honour Lieut. Governor Brett of Alberta will officially open the Jubilee at the Stampee Grounds. Everybody come.

Decorate for the Macleod Jubilee.

NEW PARAMOUNT, "CODE OF THE SEA" COMING

Thousands of women unconsciously love cowboys, according to Jacqueline Logan, popular Paramount player. "These," she adds, "are largely moral cowboys—the kind of men, who could right many wrongs but are restrained because they fear what the world will think of them. Shifting blame to someone else and assuming innocence is so much easier.
It is the second type of coward—the physical—which is portrayed in "Code of the Sea," a Victor Fleming Paramount production, in which Miss Logan is featured with Rod La Rocque.

This is the story of a young man with a yellow streak, a coward just as his father was before him. There comes a night, when a violent storm at sea, with strong gusts of wind and driving rains arises. The yacht Neroid, with Jenny (Miss Logan) as a passenger, is trying to stagger to port against the fury of the demonic elements. At the same time the passenger ship Northern, captained by Jenny's father (George Fawcett), has lost its propeller.

By wireless, McDow (La Rocque), commander of a lighthouse, learns of the plight of both. The Northern commands him to stay at his post so that it can bring its human cargo to shore, and simultaneously the Neroid flashes that it is sinking.

Duty requires McDow, the coward to stay at his post. The code of the sea is that no lighthouse can leave its moorings until relieved. Jenny on the Neroid faces death. On the yacht the handful are endangered, while on the Northern there are hundreds dependent upon his decision.
And it is in this decision which supplies the smashing, spectacular climax of "Code of the Sea," which will be shown Monday and Tuesday at the Empress Theatre.

The story was written for Paramount production by Byron Morgan and is considered one of the most powerful ever transferred to film.

Margaret Leahy, the English girl who came to Hollywood under the patronage of Norma Talmadge after she had been acclaimed England's most beautiful woman in competition with Buster Keaton in "Three Ages," a full length Metro feature comedy which this young comedian recently finished and which is coming to the Empress Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday next.

MACLEOD WOMEN'S INSTITUTE HOLD INTERESTING MEETING

There was a large number, some sixty women in attendance at a regular meeting of the Macleod Women's Institute held Wednesday afternoon in the Oddfellow's Hall. Twenty four members of the Granum Institute motored down and gave an excellent instructive programme. Mrs. Gibson, Pres. of the Granum W. I. took charge and announced two songs in which all joined in singing. After the minutes of their last meeting were read by the Sec-Treas. Mrs. Sandrabe, a diet, "The Japanese Love Song" was sung by Mrs. Tilder and Miss Whitton, this number was very much enjoyed. Mrs. McLeod then read a most interesting and instructive paper on "Co-operation of Home and School." This was followed by another duet by Mrs. Tilder and Miss Whitton who responded to the hearty encore with "An Old-Fashioned Town."

An invitation was extended from Mrs. Ross, convener of the constituency, to attend a picnic to be held Friday, July 27th at the home of Mrs. Moseley. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem after which a dainty lunch was served. Hostesses, Mesdames Swinerton, Kope, Watson, Kyle and Blakely.

Plans were made to hold the Macleod Women's Institute Annual picnic on Labor Day, Sept. 1st and the Granum Women's Institute and the members of the constituency were invited to join with them.

Mrs. A. Watson, who has been an active member of the W. I. since it was first organized, presented the Society with a large box of books. These will be a great addition to the library, which the Institute has started. A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Watson and regret expressed at her departure from Macleod. The Institute will miss her willing assistance and interest.

The Society will not hold another meeting until the third Tuesday in August. Mesdames Kope, Bell and Hill will then give a demonstration on canning vegetables. The report of the annual convention recently held in Calgary, will also be given.

INDIAN BOYS SUFFER DEFEAT

The Macleod Junior aggregation of baseball, journeyed to St. Paul's H.D. Indian School and there locked horns with the Indian boys. In the first one or two innings the dusky lads, had the Town boys going, and were hitting Ringland pretty freely, retiring from the second innings with a 3 run lead. After this the young Macleodites settled down, and getting on to the St. Paul's pitcher, and the pitcher receiving weak support, a large list of runs were registered. The final score finished with a long lead for the Town team. With a little more practise in fielding, the Indians should give the Macleod bunch a far better return game, when they come here next Saturday afternoon.

STAVELY STAR NINE BITES THE DUST

"Lo; how the mighty hath fallen" Stavely the crack team of the Southern Alberta League suffered defeat at the hands of the Macleod team, in one of the best games witnessed in the league, on Friday last at the Strevly diamond. The game was snappy right thru' and good ball was the order of the day. Clarke and Haynes, hurling with Allen catching was the battery for Stavely, while Macleod had Macdonald throwing and Dillingham catching. The latter two played brilliant ball, and Macdonald in the pitchers box received wonderful support from his team. The final score was 5-4 in favor of Macleod. Stavely plays their return game in Macleod, on Friday night, everybody turn out. Macleod is making good in this league, now boast you knackers, there's enough of you who thought the Macleod boys were too young and inexperienced to enter any such league.

BASEBALL COMMENTS

Macdonald and Dillingham had the Stavely lads guessing, as to whether these were some of the young boys Macleod were playing.

"Spud" went out on Friday to a ball game and got drenched by rain, on Saturday he again went out and was soaked through in the cloud-burst. He's just wondering what the third soaking will be. By the excellent performances Spud is putting up, an interior decoration is coming to him.

The redoubtable "Slim" with all his antics and ferociousness, failed to penetrate the courage of the Macleod Cubs, who just dug their claws in deeper and went after him.

Joe Mark's tigers have now taken the lead in the local league. Purcell is liable to soon take second place. Once again Ray the old biblical quotation hits you square in the eyes. "The first shall be last and the last first, etc., etc."

Macleod is going to turn out on Friday in full force, and root for the Macleod team. They are playing Stavely in the return league game. They'll want all the support they can get, we want them to win this game.

TRIED TO ENTER VENDORS STORE

The wonderful stock of exclusive goods kept by the Government Liquor Store, attracted the attention of some thirsty souls on Monday night or early Tuesday morning last.

About 8 o'clock Tuesday morning when W. Morrison opened his store in the former Hudson's Bay Building, he found that his Cash Register had been monkeyed with and ten dollars in silver had been taken. He thereupon searched the store and cellar and found that admission had been gained by the forcing of an iron grating and basement window. The marauders with the aid of an iron bar tried to force

Do your guests praise you for your delicious afternoon treat? The hostesses who serve Bawden's Bread, cut into those thin, tempting slices that fairly entice your appetite, always secure added praise for their thoughtfulness. Bawden's Bread is the bread that wins not only compliments from your guests, but from your family as well. It has that fine, even texture—that delicate, crisp, brown crust—the choice, alluring flavor that makes it taste as if you yourself had baked it. It is the bread that exactly suits a discriminating hostess.

THURSDAY, JUNE 19th, 1924
FIFTH FORTNIGHTLY CROP REPORT
Issued by Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, Saturday, June 14, 1924.

Grain crops throughout the province are making satisfactory progress, in spite of unusually backward conditions. Growth in most districts has been slow owing to the lateness of the spring season, and general backwardness of the weather since seeding. Precipitation has not been as generous this season as was the case in the same period of last year, but the existence of a greater reserve of moisture from the fall and winter gave the crops a healthy start. Fresh precipitation within the past week has greatly improved conditions in most parts of the province, and there is every reason for optimism in the situation.

In the south-eastern districts there have been light showers since last report, but rain is still needed over a large area. Heavy precipitation has been recorded in south-western districts, where the situation is very satisfactory. In the central and northern areas precipitation has not been so heavy, although there have been generous local showers, and light rains over most of these areas. Districts north of Wetaskiwin as far as the Peace River and Grande Prairie districts and east and west of Edmonton were visited by a much-welcomed heavy rain in the past 48 hours.

Since last report the weather generally has been cool, with some frost which damaged garden stuff to a certain extent but did not touch the growing grain. The demand is now for warmer weather.

Seeding of practically all crops is now completed, with the exception of green feed in some localities. Recent rains have encouraged the seeding of a larger area in oats and other crops, but the wheat acreage will be little, if any increase over that of last year.

New wheat is above ground from seven to ten inches, and other grains are showing. Winter rye is in bloom in the south. Sweet clover shows little winter killing. Alfalfa is showing

SUMMER VACATIONS
A neat little pamphlet has been prepared by the Canadian Pacific Railway with a view to assisting the public to plan their summer vacation trips. A large number of summer vacation fares and sleeping car fares are quoted in it.
The Company has also issued a compact pocket folder regarding the "Trans-Canada Limited"—the fastest train across Canada, giving schedules and other information.
A copy of either or both of these will be gladly furnished to any one upon application to the Canadian Pacific Ticket Agent.

ing a splendid growth in the southern irrigation districts. Pasture conditions are much improved over most of the province.
Grasshoppers, though appearing in several districts, have done little damage to crops. Cutworms are reported to be bothering the crops in a few localities. Caterpillars are doing great damage to trees in the central and northern areas, but do not touch the grain crops.
Livestock conditions are fairly satisfactory. Many winter-fed cattle are now being marketed at very good prices. The average prices maintained at the recent bull sales at Calgary, Lacombe and Edmonton were encouragingly high.

MACLEOD METHODIST CHURCH
Sunday Services

June 22nd—11 a.m. Rev. G. D. Armstrong, B.A. will preach.
2:30 p.m.—Sunday School and Bible Class.
7:30 p.m.—Sister Margaret Saunders, Deaconess of the British Wesleyan Church, at present serving under the Department of Evangelism and Social Service, will give an address, dealing with some phases of the work of the Church in dealing with British immigrants. Miss Saunders is a very attractive speaker and her address will be of unusual and timely interest.

At 2:30 p.m.—The open-air service (which was to have been held on Sunday, June 8th but was postponed because of unfavorable weather conditions) will be held at Allanfield School. The Macleod Brass Band under the leadership of Mr. J. A. Edgar will render special sacred music and Rev. G. D. Armstrong will give an address on "Religion and Community Life."

June 29th.—Rev. Jno. MacLean, M.A., P.L.D., D.D., of Winnipeg, who was the first missionary to the Blood Indians in this district will preach in the Methodist Church. Dr. MacLean completes this year his fiftieth year in active service in the ministry and it is very fitting that he should do so amidst the scenes of his early labors. He is now rendering excellent service as the Archivist of the Methodist Church.

Very many 'old-timers' will welcome this opportunity to see and hear him again.

CALGARY EXHIBITION AND STAMPEDE

Ride 'em Cowboy! Milk that Cow! Off to the wild bunch! and similar typical rangland expressions will be the order of the day during the week of July 7th to 12th, at Calgary, Alberta, when natives of that famous "City of the Foothills" are holding their annual Frontier Frolic known as "The Stampede" in conjunction with the Calgary Exhibition.

Everybody has heard of the Western Frontier Day celebration that is held each July in the progressive Alberta city, thousands from all over the world have witnessed this unique combined Exhibition and Stampede where are shown with historical correctness every phase of genuine western life, from before the coming of the white settlers up until the present day. The opening of the gigantic celebration is the famous Stampede Parade, five miles in length, in which appear hundreds of Indians with their ponies, cowboys, and full ceremonial regalia, early settlers and oldtimers, men and women who pioneered the way across the vast unsettled prairies of the Northwest Territories and paved the way to make the Canadian West the vast inland Empire that it is today.

Hudson Bay Company's factors with the Red River carts, ox-teams, stage coaches, veterans of the 1874 Royal North West Mounted Police. Cowmen and the round-up outfits of cowboys, wild horses, buckers, wild cattle, and every type and character that has gone to make the West, a locale as picturesque as history promises.

Thousands of dollars in cash prizes as well as several beautiful sterling silver trophies worth thousands more are awarded to the Cowboys and Cowgirls in the exciting contests of the sports of the range. Sports that require nerve, skill and strength. The cowboy wild range cow milking contest, the Indian races. The Packing contests, riding of wild horses and wilder steers, large Indian encampment, old Hudson Bay Trading Post in active operation, chuck wagon races, California Cart races. Old Time Cowboy Ball, everyone in Calgary dressed in cowboy costume headed by George H. Webster, Calgary's own Cowboy Mayor, waiting to extend the hand of greeting to every visitor. All this in conjunction with the Calgary Exhibition, in itself, is one of the greatest displays of the agricultural and industrial development of the Canadian West, which has justly earned the title of "The Show Window of Western Canada" and make one decide that these westerners have an annual holiday week that could not be duplicated in North America. Surely one's impulse is to go to Calgary Stampede Week, and be Western.

Too many fellows in this town like to stand around and grunt while the other man lifts.

CLOUDBURST IS FEATURE OF SATURDAY'S STORM

The furious rain and hail storm that occurred on Saturday night between 5:30 and 6 o'clock, was one of the worst ever experienced in Macleod. Accompanied by hail, sharp lightning and heavy winds the precipitation registered nearly an inch and a half, in thirty minutes. It was a regular southern cloudburst, and the roads and trails in and around Macleod were transformed into miniature lakes and rivers. The hail was not heavy enough to do any serious damage, and the crops are benefited very greatly for the rain. Several cellars in town were flooded, and in some cases goods stored in the basements were damaged by rain. The crops in this district are now looking splendid, and the growth in the last few days is really remarkable. In some cases crops of wheat that were looking pretty sick, have fully revived and have grown two or three inches in the past week. The prospect for a bumper crop this season, is now very promising, and providing the destructive hot winds are eliminated from the Weather Clerk's supplies, the Farmers are feeling fairly comfortable.

EDMONTON STAMPEDE

The Edmonton Exhibition management are making elaborate preparations for the stampede to be held in connection with the Exhibition on July 14th to 19th. Messrs. Nimmons & Patterson of Wetaskiwin, are touring the country in search of the toughest and wildest horses, cows and steers for the various contests, and G. M. Williams, who has for years guided the destinies of the Queenie Creek Stampede, will act as secretary of the Edmonton event. Corral and chute have also been erected in the centre field in front of the grand stand, and the accommodation for spectators will be increased. The Hudson's Bay Co. will erect an old-time fort and trading post, and Indians from the Hobbema Reserve, in tepees, will lend a picturesque touch. Arrangements have also been made with the Provincial Government to make a display of ancient carts and other equipment used in the old frontier days.

Cowboys will be permitted to use a uniform saddle that can be used for all kinds of practical range and ranch riding, though the Exhibition Association is not enforcing the use of the "Association" saddle; saddles will however be open to inspection at any time, and must be approved by the stampede committee.

There will be bucking horse contests, bareback, and with saddle; calf roping contests, wild cow and steer riding, wild cow milking, wild horse races, demotrac races, Roman or standing races, relay races, and various other events, including special features to be arranged for Indians, street parades, etc.

With the Dominion convention of the Elks in Edmonton at the same time as the Stampede, and the five bands which the Elks are bringing with them, in addition to the local purveyors of music and fun, a rousing time is looked for in Edmonton during the week of July 14th to 19th.

RETURNED SOLDIER WELCOMES DRECO

Remarkable tonis properties again demonstrated by giving quick relief.

Good health is one of the greatest of man's assets. Yet all over this country there are men and women who are not enjoying good health, for the simple reason that they have ailments that are slowly sapping their bodies of energy, vigor and ambition. Such was the case of Mr. L. E. Foster, of 12969 119th St., Edmonton, Alta. His health was in a precarious condition. During service in the war he was gassed and it seems since his return, he has never regained his strength. Then Dreco came to give him relief.

"My nerves were in a very weakened condition," states Mr. Foster. "I had severe headaches, dizzy spells and backaches. Got up in the morning with a bad taste in my mouth and my tongue was always coated. All this time I had been suffering from stomach trouble and my appetite was very poor. I have taken three bottles of Dreco and the results have surprised me. I am feeling much better. I best better my appetite is better than it has been for years and my entire system seems to be built up."

Thousands of people gladly give testimony to the wonderful merit of this herbal remedy. Thousands have obtained relief after other medicines have failed. Dreco is made from Nature's own herbs, roots, bark and leaves, contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs, and is pure and wholesome in every respect. Dreco is being specially introduced in Macleod by A. D. Ferguson, and is sold by a good druggist everywhere.

TRAITS OF CHILDHOOD

"When the mother of the Gracili (famous men of Rome) was asked to show her jewels, she led in her two boys, saying, 'These are my most precious jewels.' If the modern mother were asked to name her most highly prized possessions, those she would give up last of all, she would undoubtedly reply, 'My children'. Their lives and their happiness mean more to her than anything else in the world," said Dean A. A. Cleveland of the education department of the State College of Washington, in a recent radio talk over broadcaster KFAE on "Some Fundamental Traits of Childhood." He continued, "The study of children impresses two fundamental and apparently contradictory facts—first, that children are very unlike—no two are alike; and second, that all children have many traits in common, that they resemble each other in many ways."

"Children differ in age, sex, mental ability, size and many other traits. The study of differences is an interesting one, but just now we are more concerned with resemblances which are probably more important than differences in the training of the child. The reason for these common traits is found in heredity. They have been handed down from generation to generation, and are part of the native equipment of individuals."

"Some of the chief traits that children have in common are as follows: 1. All possess the instinct of pugnacity, usually called the fighting instinct. It is fundamental and necessary, even if at times it is troublesome. Both sexes possess it, though it manifests itself differently. Boys like to fight. This instinct had survival value in primitive times. It developed courage, and in our day develops manliness if directed aright. To recognize its present-day value one has only to recall that it is the same inner force that impels one to contend against evil, to overcome opposition, and to persist in one's undertakings. Without this fundamental tendency a child would be weak and flabby and would amount to nothing. The child of strong will may be difficult to direct, but he has greater possibilities than his weaker brother, if he is properly directed."

"A second trait, one of great significance for education, is the instinct of imitation. This is especially strong in human beings, though it is found also in some animals. It is seen in children's play in which they imitate their elders and some other children. The tendency leads them to do what they see others do, for good or ill, they pattern after those about them. The danger of bad example is obvious, and makes us realize the importance of proper companions for our children. The old Greeks thought so highly of the value of example that they delegated especially capable and virtuous men to be the companions of their youth. These men were aptly called 'inspirers of youth.' (To be continued next week.)

CHOOSING CRACKERS

I have known some really attractive dishes to be robbed of their proper effect in the menu by the serving of the wrong kind of crackers with them. Sweet crackers, for example, should never be served with soups. The proper thing with soups would be oysterettes, saltine biscuits, sardine flakes, soda crackers, Uneda biscuits or lunch biscuits, dinner biscuits, pilot bread, or butter crackers—according to the richness of the soup. You note they are all plain crackers, of a salty flavor. With oysters or clams, or with lobster or crab cocktails, serve oysterettes, saltine biscuits or sardine flakes. With salad or coffee the proper thing would be saltine biscuits, sardine flakes, Uneda biscuits, cheese sandwich, cheese wafers, peanut sandwich, soda crackers, butter-thins, little pretzels or zwieback.

COMING, JELLS AND JAMS

The jelly and jam season is upon us, so it is well to brush up on a few points—and to guide the June brides a bit in the wonderful art of preparing. Not everything in a jelly glass is worthy the name of jelly. Good jelly is clear, sparkling, transparent and of beautiful color. It should hold its form and quiver, but not flow when slipped out of the glass. It retains the surface and angles and a clean, distinct cleavage when cut. It is both firm and tender. To make good jelly the fruit juice must contain the right proportion of acid and pectin, and be combined with the correct proportion of sugar. Different fruit juices vary in the amount of pectin and acid. Not all fruit juice contains pectin, which is what makes the jelly "jell". One may add acid or pectin, or flavor, when the juice to be used has not enough of its own. The natural fruit juice is more artistic than that made with substitute colors and flavors. Better jelly is made of fruit not quite ripe, than of that a bit over-ripe, as the sun changes some of the pectin into fruit sugar again the ripening. Some fruits rich in pectin do not have enough acid, as quinces, and will not make jelly without acid added. It helps bring out the pectin in fruit to add a little acid before cooking. Heat is also needed to develop the pectin. Better jelly is made if you have a thermometer, to be sure of your temperature.

HARD SAUCES

Here is a recipe for hard sauce which can be altered to suit the dearest with which it is to be served. Cream half a cup of butter, gradually adding two cups of powdered sugar, beating it in. Add three teaspoons of boiling water, one at a time, beating vigorously. Pile it in a dish and set it aside to chill before using. To make this spicy, add an eighth of a teaspoon of powdered cinnamon, the same of ground ginger, and a slight grating of nutmeg. If you wish a chocolate hard sauce, reduce the amount of butter to a third of a cup and add three tablespoons of melted chocolate instead. To turn it into a marshmallow sauce, instead of the water use three tablespoons of juice from a bottle of marshmallow cherries, and when the sauce is thoroughly creamed, add two tablespoons of the coarsely chopped cherries.

WOOL BATHING SUITS

May is past. So there is no danger in taking a dip in the lake or river when you are wearing one of our soft wool suits. There is very little risk of chill, and the comfort of soft wool next the skin, is added luxury. Cotton suits get baggy and out of shape, and you have a chilly feeling on coming out of the water. We only got a few. Last year you could only get a limited supply. The girl who wears a wool suit will be the envy of one of those wearing cotton.

BATHING SHOES

To be up to date get a pair, brilliant color in elastic rubber. A nice Gladia shade is very effective. But our chief anxiety about you ladies will be, to see that you wear wool next your skin, and nature will take care of the rest.

WHITE WEAR

Now don't forget that we are clearing out leather soled canvas Shoes and Balins at unheard of prices. What is the good of buying leather goods when at these bargains you can get two and three pairs of canvas ones for the price of one pair of leather.

MEMORIAL FOR MOUNTED POLICE VETERANS TO BE ERECTED

Word has been received that the Dominion Government will erect a "Cairn and Bronze Tablet in Macleod" shortly after the Jubilee in commemoration of the 50th Anniversary of the coming of the North West Mounted Police to Western Canada ness woman, one caterer, one hotel proprietor, one saleswoman, one beauty operator, one canner, and finally a telephone operator.

"Mothers, as these figures witness, will make the greatest sacrifices for the sake of their children. They will deprive themselves of all luxuries and many necessities in order that their boys and girls may have every possible opportunity."

THE DREAM OF MOTHERS

Some one clipped from a magazine the following paragraphs and sent to me, under the title "The Dream of Mothers":

"No greater tribute has ever been paid to the women of America than is found in the report of the University of Wisconsin which discloses the fact that widows and self-supporting mothers sent 153 sons and daughters to the university to join the freshman class. Mothers registered 93 sons and 60 daughters.

"One hundred and twenty-five were housewives, five were nurses, three dressmakers, three milliners, two matrons, two stenographers, one a dramatic critic, one a librarian, one a chaperon, one musician, one retired farmer, one club manager, one busi-
